

Victoria LRC: Library information and online resources for HE students
020 7802 8351 vslibrary@westking.ac.uk

HE students can access the LRC from 9.00am until 8.00pm every weekday. Please ask a member of library staff if you need any help.

Library Catalogue	Search for books available in the LRC and also link to e-book versions. Renew and reserve books online. Log in with your student number to see your borrower account. http://westmi.cirgahosting.com/
--------------------------	--

E-books	Search the e-book collection, read online and print/download extracts. Log in with your college username (student number) and password. http://site.ebrary.com/lib/westking/
----------------	---

Journal databases	Log in via your institution/Shibboleth with your college username (student number) and password. More detailed access instructions for individual databases below.
Emerald	Business and management journals (including marketing, environmental management, organisation studies, operations & quality management + British Food Journal).
Science Direct	Social and behavioural sciences from Science Direct, including accounting, project management, information systems, finance, retailing, hospitality and tourism).
Ebsco	Select Shibboleth login , select UK Higher Education as your region or group then click on Westminster Kingsway College to access business and hospitality articles. Full-text access to Harvard Business Review available via Business source elite.
Wiley	Select UK Higher Education region, then City and Islington College as institution. Science including social science, food science and nutrition.
SAGE	Select City and Islington College as institution to log in. Access to journals covering business, humanities, social sciences, science, technology and medicine.