The way in which companies work has been affected by cultural changes in recent history. "Most obviously we have seen the growth of an industrialised world, with much of the work people do involving complex technologies and advanced divisions of labour within bureaucratically structured work organisations" ().

It will soon be harder for wealthy UK taxpayers to hide their money in offshore accounts in order to avoid paying tax. HM Revenue and Customs are launching the New Disclosure Opportunity, a scheme which encourages offshore account holders to confess to hiding their taxable income and which hopes to raise £500m over the next four years ().
